

It is with great sadness that Edlesborough Parish Council hears of the death of HRH Queen Elizabeth II.

Edlesborough Parish Council sends their deepest condolences to the Royal Family on behalf of the residents of Edlesborough Parish.

Her Majesty's reign witnessed many milestones in the history of this country and the Commonwealth and more changes in the way we live our lives than any previous reign. We express gratitude for Her Majesty's life of dedication and service to the British people.

Queen Elizabeth II 1926 – 2022

Members of the public who wish to do so can sign a virtual book of condolence on the Royal website.

St Mary's Church, Eaton Bray is open daily from 9.00am until 4.00pm until the day following the funeral for quiet prayer and contemplation. There will be a book of condolence to sign should anyone wish to do so. All are invited to come and remember the Queen's life of service. If you wish to place a floral tribute, this will be welcomed on either side of the path leading to church from the High Street.
